DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-20 are pending.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-16 and 19-20, drawn to particles and a method of making thereof.

Group II, claim(s) 17 and 18, drawn to an apparatus.

The inventions listed as Groups I and II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Group I claims particles and its method of making comprising providing a load stock comprising a polymer, a wax, and/or a lipid that is solid at standard temperature and pressure and optionally, a biologically active substance; contacting the load stock with a supercritical fluid to form a melt; contacting the melt with a polar solvent to form an emulsion; and expanding the emulsion across a pressure drop to form solid particles whereas Group II claims an apparatus comprising a vessel, a means to selectively control the flow of supercritical fluid from the supercritical fluid supply to the vessel, a means to selectively control the flow of polar solvent from the polar solvent supply to the vessel, a means disposed within the vessel for forming an emulsion between the polar solvent and the melt, and expansion chamber and a nozzle. Group II can be distinguished from Group I because Group I does not include any of the aforementioned apparatus components in Group II.

As such, Groups I and II do not share the same special technical feature. Therefore, the claims are not so linked by a special technical feature within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 so as to form a single inventive concept.

In addition, if Group I is selected, applicant is further required to elect a species. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

1. Discontinuous phase (choose one from a-b)
  - a. Melt
  - b. Polar solvent
2. Continuous phase (choose one from a-b)
  - a. Melt
  - b. Polar solvent

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner: Claims 1-8 and 19 correspond to an election of species (1)(a) and (2)(b) and claims 9-16 and 20 correspond to an election of species (1)(b) and (2)(a).

The following claim(s) are generic: no claim is generic.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Claim 1 includes an emulsion that has a discontinuous phase which is a melt and a continuous phase which is a polar solvent whereas claim 9 includes an emulsion that has a discontinuous phase which is a polar solvent and a continuous phase which is a melt. Thus, the phase elements are reversed in each of the claims, potentiating unique results and effects in terms of solubility, viscosity, etc., depending on the particular elements employed.

As such, the species do not share the same special technical feature. Therefore, the claims are not so linked by a special technical feature within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.1 so as to form a single inventive concept.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
